THROUGH THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE FOR RAILWAYS.

SIR

In forwarding herewith an Office Note by Mr.Satyaraj Chetty Deputy Comptroller, Railways, proposing the compilation of a separate set of Open Line Codes for Mysore, I have the honour to state that I agree with Mr.Satyaraj Chetty, that, for the reasons stated by him, it would be convenient and useful to compile self-contained codes for Mysore, which will be combined codes and Manuals instead of drawing up separate Manuals to be used side by side with the Government of India Codes. I therefore request that the proposal to issue a set of open line codes for Mysore may be sanctioned. I also request that the special establishmant consisting of one Accountant, a Typist and an Attender, asked for by Mr.Satyaraj Chetty may be sanctioned, Mr.Ranganatham who is now an Accountant in the Open Line section of the Railway Audit Office being taken on, as proposed, as Accountant of the Special Section to be formed. The pay and allowances proposed by Mr.Satyaraj Chetty for the special Establishment are reasonable and may ~~sic~~ also be sanctioned. The Establishment may as suggested be sanctioned for the present for nine months and Mr.Satyaraj Chetty

The work to be done will consist chiefly in revising and rearranging the matter in accordance with the Orders of Government, (passed from time to time) If need for making any material alteration is found, I shall, of course obtain the sanction of Government to such changes on separate proposals submitted regarding them. Alterations of minor character relating purely to Account forms and proceedure meed not, I think, be referred to Government. With sanction obtained separately on matters requiring it, it is not necessary to submit the compilations themselves for approval of Government. I think this proceedure will also lead to the work being done expeditiously and economically.

The proceedure indicated in para 7 of my letter appended to Government Order No. F.L.3747-96/ G.F.95-17-6 dated 18th January 1918 containing my proposals for the compilation of Civil Account Code may also be followed in the compilation of Open Line Code.

Now that a third Officer has been sanctioned for the Railway Audit Office I propose to take up atonce the compilation of Railway Audit and Account Manuals. We have so far been able to get up only two Manuals Viz.(1) The Manual of Instructions for the Travelling Inspectors of Accounts and (2) The Station Accounts Manual. There remain the following Manuals yet to be compiled:--

1. The Traffic Audit Manual
2. The Expenditure Manual
3. The Manual of Workshop Accounts
4. Stores Audit Manual
5. Smaller Manuals treating of Provident Fund Account, Pay and Cash Section Booking and Budget etc.,

I have for sometime past been considering the desirability of compiling separate Open Line Codes for Mysore in addition to the above Manuals and in this connection I have also been considering whether it would not be preferable to compile a combined Code and Manual on the lines on which the Mysore Account Code is being drawn up instead of separate Codes and Manuals. The two bulky Volumes of the Government of India Open Line Code issued provisionally for the guidance of Administrations and offices of different State Lines in India contain large amount of matter which being extraneous to Mysore are not required for our purpose and smaller books embodying only what is applicable to our lines together with all the local orders issued from time to time for ~~obser-~~

1 Typist preferably one knowing Shorthand

1 Attender

For the place of the Accountant I would select Mr. G.V. Ranganatham who passed with credit in the recent Railway Accounts Examination and has been making a special study of the Railway Accounts Manuals issued by other Railways. He has already under my instructions been drawing up a skeleton sketch of the matter which has to go to our Codes and Manuals. During the period for which the special Establishment is entertained he may be given with the sanction of Government an allowance of Rs. 50/- per mensem in addition to the pay to which he is entitled. The work is exacting and the allowance I have proposed is the minimum additional remuneration necessary for its proper performance. The pay of the Typist and Attender may be fixed at Rs. 50/- and Rs. 15/- respectively. The Establishment may for the present be sanctioned for nine months after the expiration of which I may be required to submit a report of the progress made and as to whether the continuance of the Establishment would be necessary.

Now that a third officer has been sanctioned for Audit Office I propose to take up at once the co Railway Audit and Account Manuals. I have for some time past been considering the desirabili compiling separate Open Line Codes for Mysore in addition to above Manuals, and in this connection I have also been con ing whether it would not be preferable to compile a combined and Manual of the lines on which the Mysore Account Code is be drawn up instead of separate Codes and Manuals. The two bulky volumes of the Government of India Open Line Code issued — provisionally for the guidance of Administrations and offices of different State Lines in India contain large amount of matter which being extraneous to Mysore are not required for our purpose and smaller books embodying only that is applicable to our lines together with all the local orders issued from time to time for observance by several departments of the Railway Administration in the State may for convenience of reference and study be compiled. Instead of framing separate Manuals as adjuncts to the Code, the matter usually included in them mainly consisting of rules of procedure and practice in elaboration of Code rules, may usefully be embodied in the Code itself, as subsidiary rules or instructions under the main rules to which they appertain. Codes so compiled will be compact, comprehensive and self-contain ed and will be suitable companion volumes to the Mysore Account Code to those who wish to study bot [redacted] who have constantly to refer to them in the ordinary course of business. The two Manuals already compiled one for the guidance of Stations and the other for the Travelling Inspectors of Accounts, whether separate Manuals alone are compiled or a combined Code and Manual is drawn up would still be necessary and as such the labour and money expended in their preparation would not go in vain. I propose therefore to take up the compilation of Railway Open Line Code on the lines indicated above dividing it into three parts, the first part dealing with the Audit and Accounts of the Railway earnings the second part with that relating to the Railway — expenditure and the third part dealing with special departments like Workshops, Stores, etc, and Miscellaneous matter not included in parts I and II. The Mysore Open Line Code will thus be issued in three handy volumes. If my proposal is approved I request that to assist me in this work sanction of Government may be obtained for the entertainment of the following Establishments :-

1 Accountant

2.1.Typist preferably one knowing Shorthand.

1.Attender.

For the place of the Accountant I would select Mr.C.N. Janardhana who passed with credit in the recent Railway Accounts Examination and has been making a special study od the Railway Accounts Manuals issued by other Railways. He has already, under my instructions been drawing up a skeleton sketch of the matter which has to go to our Codes and Manuals. The work is exacting and the allowance I have proposed is the minimum additional remuneration necessary for its proper performance. The pay of the Typist and attender may be fixed at 50/- and Rs-15/- respectively. The establishment may for the present be sanctioned for nine months after the expiration of which I may be required to submit a report of the progress made as to whether the continuance of the establishment would be necessary.
